

Here beneath the cross

(Your courts)

John Hartley, Kelly Minter
& Gary Sadler

Simply

Verse Bm A/C# D Em D

1. Here be-neath the cross what love is this I see?—
deep the heal-ing wounds that pierced Your heart for mine;—

A/C# Em D/F# G Bm

— How beau-ti-ful the sac-ri-fice— of Christ—
— the blood that flows— through his-tor-y— the sin-

1. A Em || 2. A Em Chorus

— for me.— How-ner— finds.— A-

Bm D A Em D/F# G Bm D

ma-zing— love, how— can it be,— that— You, my—

A Em D/F# G A Em

God would— die for me?— Hal-le-lu-jah,— hal-le-

A Em Bm D A Em D/F#

lu - jah. A - ma - zing love, a - ma - zing love,

G Bm A/C# Em D A (Fine)

a - ma - zing love.

Bm A/C# D Em D A/C#

Here be - neath the cross, I'll rest for all my days,

Em D/F# G Bm A Em

bu - ried with my Sa - viour, then for - e - ver raised.

D.S. al fine

A -

2. Here beneath the cross,
 My glory I lay down,
 For I will sing of Jesus Christ and His renown.
 He has conquered death,
 The stone was rolled away;
 My God arose in victory and He reigns today.

*Inspired by the hymn 'And can it be'
 by Charles Wesley (1707-1788)*